A Word from the Pastor

This week the Church transitions from Christmas season into ordinary time with a month to go until Lent begins. During this liturgical year we will hear from the Gospel of Mark, which is the first and shortest Gospel. There are a number of actions done quickly in Mark's Gospel that reveal Christ's Divine power and these lead ultimately to His Passion on the cross. Throughout the Gospel Jesus keeps his identity as the Messiah secret because the people would not understand what that actually means. St. Mark focuses on the essentials of Christ's work and how the group of followers grows. This can be something for us to focus on as God's people.

What are the essential things I need to do for God in the coming weeks? Who can I invite to "come and see" Jesus in the proclamation of His Word and in the reception of His Body? Who are the sick, afflicted, and hungry that I can reach out to at this time? Let's take an inventory and take care of business.

Peaceful Transfer of Power/ Constant Witness to Life

During this week I pray for a peaceful transition of power as a new president is inaugurated. The truth is that neither party fulfills Catholic social teaching and we need to be a prophetic voice with whoever is in office. As Catholics, we will need to be a voice for the unborn as well as the refugee and the poor. We need to uphold the free practice of religion as an inherent right given by God and not stripped by the government. We need to uphold the sanctity of marriage between one man and one woman. Nonetheless we need to respect the justly proved decisions of electors and not resort to violence in this transition. The votes are in and Joe Biden will be our 46th president this Wednesday. Let's do our part to keep the peace and abide by a well-formed conscience.

Pope Francis Encyclical Presentation (2 PM TODAY)

This Sunday there is an opportunity to form our conscience more fully with Catholic social teaching. Paul Fahey will be giving a talk here on the latest encyclical, Fratelli Tutti (All are brothers). I am going to say that we can have up to twenty-five people with masks and distancing within the San Martin Hall. Otherwise, you can follow this talk on the Zoom at this link: <https://zoom.us/j/98049296365?pwd=Wj11WW5LcFRTOGcrVXN2V3d1MDl1QT09>

OFFERTORY

Our Finance Council met this week and made some assessments about our finances through December 2020. Halfway through our fiscal year we are doing alright because of the PPP Loan, the LEAP Grant, and the fundraisers that we have had so far. We have been down a bit (-$6,000) in the weekly offertory and so we will adjust how we are doing it. We will have the baskets brought up to the front of the sanctuary when the altar is prepared. Please continue to give to the offertory if you are not giving online to support the operating expenses of our Church. Thanks for your support in this tough time. Let's keep up the good work that God has for us to do.

Your Servant in Christ, Fr. Vincent Richardson

UNA PALABRA DEL PASTOR

Esta semana la Iglesia pasa de la época navideña a tiempo ordinario con un mes por recorrer hasta que comience la Cuaresma. Durante este año litúrgico escucharemos del Evangelio de Marcos, que es el primer y más corto Evangelio. Hay una serie de acciones que se realizan rápidamente en el Evangelio de Marcos que revelan el poder divino de Cristo y que, en última instancia, conducen a Su Pasión en la cruz. A lo largo del Evangelio Jesús mantiene su identidad como el Mesías en secreto porque el pueblo no entendería lo que eso realmente significa. San Marcos se centra en lo esencial de la obra de Cristo y en cómo crece el grupo de seguidores. Esto puede ser algo en lo que podamos centrarnos como pueblo de Dios.

¿Cuáles son las cosas esenciales que debo hacer por Dios en las próximas semanas? ¿A quién puedo invitar a "venir a ver" a Jesús en el anuncio de Su Palabra y en la recepción de Su Cuerpo? ¿Quiénes son los enfermos, afligidos y hambrientos a los que puedo tender la mano en este momento? Hagamos un inventario y ocupémonos de trabajar en esto.

Transferencia pacífica del poder/
Testimonio constante de la vida

Durante esta semana rezo por una transición pacífica del poder cuando se inaugure un nuevo presidente. La verdad es que ninguna de las partes cumple con la enseñanza social católica y necesitamos ser una voz profética con quien sea que esté en el cargo. Como católicos, tendremos que ser una voz para los no nacidos, así como para los refugiados y los pobres. Necesitamos defender la libre práctica de la religión como un derecho inherente dado por Dios y no despojado por el gobierno. Tenemos que defender la santidad del matrimonio entre un hombre y una mujer. Aun así, debemos respetar las decisiones justamente probadas de los electores y no recurrir a la violencia en esta transición. Las votaciones están en juego y Joe Biden será nuestro 46 presidente este miércoles. Hagamos nuestra parte para mantener la paz y obrar con una conciencia bien formada.

Presentación encíclica del Papa Francisco
(2 PM HOY)

Este domingo hay una oportunidad de formar nuestra conciencia más plenamente con la enseñanza social católica. Paul Fahey dará una charla aquí sobre la última encíclica, Fratelli Tutti (Todos son hermanos). Voy a decir que podemos tener hasta veinticinco personas con máscaras y distanciamiento dentro del Salón de San Martín. De lo contrario, puede seguir esta charla en el Zoom en este enlace:

OFERTORIO

Nuestro Consejo de Finanzas se reunió esta semana e hizo algunas evaluaciones sobre nuestras finanzas hasta diciembre de 2020. A mitad de nuestro año fiscal estamos bien debido al Préstamo PPP, la Beca LEAP y las recaudaciones de fondos que hemos tenido hasta ahora. Hemos bajado un poco (-$6,000) en la oferta semanal y así nos ajustaremos cómo lo estamos haciendo. Tendremos las cestas llevadas al frente del santuario cuando se prepare el altar. Por favor, continúe dando a la ofrenda si no está dando en línea para apoyar los gastos de operación de nuestra Iglesia. Gracias por su apoyo en este momento difícil. Sigamos con la buena obra que Dios tiene para nosotros.

¡Gracias!

Thank you so much for your support!

Dear family of Cristo Rey, we cannot thank you enough for your support to our giving tree 2020. We had the largest number of families that needed our help and thanks to your generosity and support, were able to bring happiness to many children. Your time spent in buying a gift to brighten someone's life is priceless! We will also like to thank the MSU Phi Chapter of Phi Iota Alpha Fraternity Inc. and the First Presbyterian Church for their monetary donations. Wishing you all a blessed 2021, Charity and Justice Committee.

Our Deepest Condolences to the family of Tom Martin on his recent death on December 30th. Tom was a very active member of our Church. May the light of Christ shine upon him. May he rest in peace.

Also to Eddie Wong on the recent death of his wife Faye Wong who passed away last Sunday. Eddie and his wife Faye were also active members in the very beginning of our Church. May the light of Christ shine upon her. May she rest in peace.
